4 Policy

FS's Culture

- 4.1 Trustees, employees, and volunteers are expected to lead by example in adhering to policies, procedures and best practice. Grant applicants and external organisations [such as suppliers and contractors] are expected to act with integrity and without intent to commit fraud against FS.

Specific Actions to Limit the Possibility of Fraud

4.2 Appointment of trustees

- 4.2.1 Every endeavour will be made by existing trustees to ensure that a potential trustee is bona fide and suitable to act in that role having regard to the requirements of this policy and any relevant legislation.

4.2.2 New trustees will be required to complete a Trustee Eligibility Form and an HMRC Fit and Proper Declaration. From time to time, existing trustees will be asked to renew these declarations. The Conflict of Interest Policy also includes the requirement for all trustees and employees to complete a Declaration of Interests annually.

4.3 Appointment of employees

4.3.1 Written references will be sought for all employees including confirmation of their honesty and integrity.

4.4 Acceptance or refusal of gifts

4.4.1 In agreeing the acceptance of any gift, endowment, or legacy, the CEO and relevant Team Head will ascertain if there is published or other credible evidence that:

- The proposed gift will not be made from a source that arises in whole or in part from an activity that is illegal, e.g., tax evasion or fraud.
- The proposed gift, or any of its conditions, will not require action that is illegal or fraudulent.

4.5 Grant assessment and distribution

4.5.1 The assessment process for applicants will seek to maximise the opportunity of deterring and detecting fraudulent applications in proportion with the financial value of grant.

4.5.2 The assessment policy will be reviewed from time to time, in relation to the issue of fraud, by the SMT and updated as appropriate.

4.5.3 Payments are made by BACS with bank account details confirmed against a scanned original bank statement. A remittance is sent electronically to the intended recipient which also acts as a check that the bank account details are correct.

4.5.4 In the case of large grants, consideration will always be given to payments being made in instalments and only after the satisfactory completion of interim reports/milestones, etc.

4.5.5 The terms and conditions contained within the Financial Controls document will be followed to ensure good financial practice.

Fraud Response Plan

4.6 FS has prepared a fraud response plan which can act as a checklist of actions and a guide to follow in the event of fraud being suspected. It covers issues such as:

- Actions to be taken.
- Who to report to.
- How to secure the evidence.
- How to prevent losses.
- Who within FS will notify the police and investigate fraud.
- Who has responsibility for notifying stakeholders and dealing with external enquiries.

4.7 The following paragraphs summarise the actions to be taken following the discovery of fraud or suspected fraud.

Purpose of the Fraud Response Plan

- 4.8 The purpose of this plan is to ensure that timely and effective action is taken in the event of a fraud. The plan aims to help minimise losses and increase the chances of a successful investigation.
- 4.9 The plan defines authority levels, responsibilities for action, and reporting lines in the event of a suspected fraud or irregularity. The plan acts as a checklist of actions and a guide to follow in the event of fraud being suspected. The plan is designed to:
- Prevent further loss
 - Establish and secure evidence necessary for criminal and/or disciplinary action
 - Determine when and how to contact the police and establish lines of communication
 - Assign responsibility for investigating the incident
 - Minimise and recover losses
 - Review the reasons for the incident, the measures taken to prevent a recurrence, and determine any action needed to strengthen future responses to fraud
 - Keep all personnel with a need to know suitably informed about the incident as the investigation develops
 - Help promote an anti-fraud culture by making it clear to employees and others that FS will pursue all cases of fraud vigorously taking appropriate legal and/or disciplinary action in all cases where that is justified

Action Following Detection

- 4.10 When any employee suspects that a fraud has occurred, they must notify the CEO as soon as possible and if the matter does not relate to an employee, trustee or co-opted committee member, update RiskMate with the following information. They should not attempt to investigate the matter themselves.
- The amount/value, if established.
 - The position regarding recovery.
 - The period over which the irregularity occurred, if known.
 - The date of discovery and how the suspected fraud was discovered.
 - The type of irregularity and what led to it.
 - Whether the person responsible has been identified.
 - Whether any collusion with others is suspected.
 - Details of any actions taken to date.
 - Any other information or comments which might be useful.

Initial Enquiries

- 4.11 The CEO and CFOO will carry out an initial investigation as soon as reasonably possible. The purpose of the initial enquiry is to confirm or repudiate, as far as possible, the suspicions that have arisen so that, if necessary, disciplinary action including further and more detailed investigation [under internal disciplinary procedures and/or the police] may be instigated.

Protection of Evidence

- 4.12 If the initial examination confirms the suspicion that a fraud has been perpetrated, then to prevent the loss of evidence which may subsequently prove essential for disciplinary action or prosecution, management should:
- Take steps to ensure that all original evidence is secured as soon as possible.
 - Be able to account for the security of the evidence at all times after it has been secured. For this purpose, all items of evidence should be individually numbered and descriptively labelled.
 - Not alter or amend the evidence in any way.
 - Keep a note of when they came into possession of the evidence. This will be useful later if proceedings take place.
 - Remember that all memoranda relating to the investigation must be disclosed to the defence in the event of formal proceedings and so it is important to carefully consider what information needs to be recorded. Care must be taken with phrases such as “discrepancy” and “irregularity” when what is really meant is fraud or theft.
- 4.13 The CEO has full responsibility for progressing the case and whilst they can, and should, call on the assistance of various sources of help at all stages [technical assistance, personnel, external audit, solicitors, etc.], ultimate responsibility and accountability in progressing the case should remain with them.

Police Involvement

- 4.14 If there is clear evidence of fraud, then the matter will be reported to the police. Consultation with the police at an early stage is beneficial allowing the police to examine the evidence available at that time and make decisions on whether there is sufficient evidence to support a criminal prosecution or if a police investigation is appropriate.

Learning from Experience

- 4.15 Following completion of the case, the CEO should prepare a summary report on the outcome and lessons learned circulating it to all other interested parties, including the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator. The CEO must take the appropriate action to improve controls to mitigate the scope for future recurrence of the fraud.

5 Roles and Responsibilities

- 5.1 The CEO and CFOO are responsible for:
- Developing and maintaining effective controls to help prevent or detect fraud - CFOO

 - Taking disciplinary action against managers where their failures have contributed to the commission of the fraud - CEO

- Line Managers are responsible for the prevention and detection of fraud by ensuring that an adequate system of internal controls exists within their areas of responsibility, and these controls operate effectively. As a result, there is a need for all managers to:

- Ensure compliance with controls.
- Ensure that agreed procedures are followed.
