2024 has been a significant year for the RWE Rosehall Community Benefit Fund. Most notably, it brought the publication of the Biggar Economics study jointly commissioned by RWE, Foundation Scotland and SSE Renewables. The study reviewed the impact of the community benefit funds from the RWE Rosehall and SSE Renewables Achany wind farms, finding that they delivered substantial and lasting benefits to the local communities and offered valuable insights into how such benefits could be maximised in other areas.

This report estimates that to date this funding has:

- Generated wellbeing benefits valued at between £10.1 and £14.5 million.
- Supported the creation of around £11.8 million local economic value; and
- Enabled the creation of around 18 long-term jobs.

In addition to the publication, the fund has continued to successfully support the local community, awarding £86,100 in grants in 2024 to both new initiatives and ongoing, highly valued multi-year awards. 2024 has also seen 5 new panel members stepping up to replace retirees, bringing a range of skills, experience, and new perspectives alongside a deep commitment to the continued development and prosperity of its communities.

Awards by Sustainable Development Goals

Foundation Scotland uses the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to help assess the impact of awards made for each fund. The 17 SDGs were adopted by the United Nations in 2015 as a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure that by 2030 all people enjoy peace and prosperity.

The SDGs are integrated; they recognise that action in one area will affect outcomes in others, and that development must balance social, economic, and environmental sustainability.

Each award from the fund has been assigned a primary SDG to which the purpose of the award fits most closely, although awards will often deliver across several SDGs. A summary of the value of awards made in 2024 by their primary SDG's is given below.

Grants Awarded and Paid Out in 2024

(Payment two – final.)

Conclusions

2024 has seen the fund play a vital role in supporting the community to provide essential services, much-needed project funding and crucial early support for an ambitious new capital development project (Kyle of Sutherland Hub - The Den). As well as responding positively to new ideas, its ongoing support for key local anchor organisations through multiyear support, some of which was unrestricted, underlined a high impact, joined up, and strategic approach to community benefit across the three communities.

The overall annual spend remained high and the impact of the fund was significant. It has provided tangible positive benefits to residents and addressed immediate needs as well as long-term ambition and aspiration.
