Background

Coimhearsnachd Bharraidh agus Bhatarsaidh (Barra and Vatersay Community) Limited (CBaB) is the parent company of several wholly owned subsidiaries, including Barra and Vatersay Wind Energy Ltd. This company operates a 910kW wind turbine, generating income for the Spagan Community Fund, which has supported community initiatives across Barra and Vatersay since its establishment in 2018. In 2024, Foundation Scotland started working in collaboration with CBaB to develop the Spagan Community Fund.

The CBaB Board of Directors allocated £50,000 of funding to the Spagan Community Fund in 2024, and a further £60,000 in 2025. In 2025, minor funding criteria changes were introduced, including Round 1 being open exclusively to applicants who did not receive Spagan funding in 2024. If there were remaining funds after Round 1, Round 2 would have been launched and open to all applicants. However, Round 1 was oversubscribed, and the full £60,000 allocation was successfully awarded. As a result, Round 2 was not launched, and the fund will now reopen in February 2026.
